A cool breeze
and summer's end
new faces, old friends and a quick exchange of vacation stories lockers clatter, and then a bell . . .

 It's an old refrain,
 but it has a special place

ROBERT J. HURLEY
Guidance Counselor

Thank you, Mr. Hurley, for demonstrating that certain goals and ideals are not lost, but that kindness, understanding, trust and respect must be earned and not just expected. Through your guidance and personality, you have set an example for each and every one of us to follow.

We, the Class of 1977, proudly dedicate the twenty-eighth edition of the Artisan to Mr. Robert J. Hurley.

Tall Ships — Newport 1976

I must go down to the seas again,
to the lonely sea and the sky,
and all I ask is a tall ship and a star to steer her by.

JOHN P. HARRINGTON B.S., M.Ed.
Superintendent Director

SUPERINTENDENT-DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Congratulations to the graduates. On this happy occasion you have every right to be proud on completing your secondary education.

Now you will start a new life - a new career, and the friendships you have made at Diman will gradually fade away. For some of you this new life may mean higher education, and for others this may mean the armed services. However, for the majority this new life will mean full-time employment. Regardless of the future, the training you have received has eminently qualified you, both academically and vocationally, for your future life's work.

You join a rapidly growing group of Diman alumni - an alumni who have made your way easier by their accomplishments since graduating from Diman. Thus you have a responsibility to emulate the successes of the alumni so that the doors from Diman to industry continue to remain open for future graduates.

We ask that you become involved in and contribute your services to community, church, youth and political organizations. Recognize the fact that we do have problems in society and work to correct them. Continually respect authority and the rights and property of others. Demonstrate concern for others less fortunate than you. Give 100% in everything you do.

For your happiness on Graduation Day be grateful to your parents for the encouragement they have given you, and to your teachers for their patience and understanding.

May you have a long, successful and rewarding career and may your life be blessed with happiness. This is the administration's wish for each and every graduate.
